HEERF II Detail – Q2 2021

As part of CRRSAA (Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act), The US Department of Education authorized more than $30.7 billion of additional emergency funding to colleges and universities across the United States. Muskingum University was allocated $2,723,866 in funding from CRRSAA. Muskingum provided the Department of Education with assurance that required funds ($798,395) would be allocated and directly distributed to students.

In March of 2021 $770,000 was paid out to 616 of 1,100 eligible students using a need-based estimate to assist with COVID related expenses.

This distribution was followed by a petition period for all students with $122,692 ($28,395 from CRRSAA and the balance from HEERF III) paid to 87 students as of June 30, 2021.

An additional $231,241 of institutional funds were used as aid to student accounts based on need and COVID experience in the second quarter.
