

Transfer Articulation Agreements

Muskingum University has transfer articulation agreements either in place or in process with several two-year institutions in Ohio, as well as with The Art Institutes International. These agreements define coursework accepted for transfer and academic standing statuses for students who transfer to Muskingum under the terms of the agreements. Students considering transferring to Muskingum should consult the appropriate office at their previous institutions regarding details of articulated transfer.

Institutions with which Muskingum has an approved or pending Articulation Agreement:

The Art Institutes International
Belmont Technical College
Central Ohio Technical College
Columbus State Community College
Hocking College
Stark State College
Washington State Community College
Zane State College
