

1981 Muscoljuan Muskingum College

New Concord, Ohio

Vol. 75

Consider the phrase "at the crossroads." The term suggests a coming together, a unifying, a joining of purpose. Not only that, but it also implies a branching out, a striving for progress, a want of success.

Muskingum College, now in its 144th year of existence, can certainly be represented by the phrase "at the crossroads." The college's past, bound by its strong heritage, the value it places on the liberal arts tradition, and its solid academic reputation, has brought about the respect that we at Muskingum can experience today. But we would like to acknowledge the idea that, even in our success, Muskingum is just now "at the crossroads." Plans for expansion, both physically and academically, are under way. We are among a small group of institutions experiencing an increased enrollment. Now, more than ever, our faculty, staff and students can face up to our tradition: "Muskingum's first priority is the individual."

Indeed, Muskingum's past has come together in an effort to ensure progress in every facet of college life. As parents, it instills a pride inside us. As staff members, it provides a framework for future growth and development. As students, it's a great thing of which to be a part. It seems, if we really have reached the crossroads at this point in time, that we can look forward to a very promising future.

The People . . . p 18

The Year . . . p 122

*I am a traveler in the world that lies around me
I journey on the roads of my experiences,
my sensations, and my interactions.*

1. Dr. David Skeen, Dean of Student Life, takes time from his busy schedule to help out at an ice cream social on the quad. 2. It was fun while it lasted according to Freshman Chip Stalter, Columbus, who tried his luck on wheels at the skate-a-thon. 3. Freshman Ed Sahli, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, supports the college by working at the annual telethon. 4. Jeff Allenby, a sophomore from South Euclid, speaks at a session during Little Sibs Weekend. The weekend, sponsored by Lambda Sigma (of which Jeff was the president during 1980-81), attempts to interest the brothers and sisters of Muskie students in our campus.

1. ⬆

1. Sophomore Cindy Peters, Mechanicsburg, keeps her mind on the sport of volleyball as she follows her teammates to one of their best seasons in several years. 2. Freshman Bill Gray, of Cambridge, finds the library to be an effective place to study. 3. Senior co-captain Ed DiGenova, New Philadelphia, finds a friend at a home season game. 4. Seniors Kim Braham, Meadville, Pennsylvania, and Loretta Deinhart, Willowick, have an opportunity to make the Muskie grapevine grow.

4. ⬆

*And even as I travel through the outside world
I'm always trying to keep in touch with who I am . . .
. . . always seeking out the wonders of the quiet
world within me.*

1. Coach Rich Kilgore, in his first year at Muskingum, lead the Muskie soccer team to one of its finest seasons in a number of years. 2. Freshman Richard and Senior Larry Cruise, brothers from Moreland Hills, speak with Joseph H. Myers, the chairman of the Board of Trustees for the college. 3. Everyone joined in on the fun as CenterBoard brought the Muscular Dystrophy Skate-a-thon to campus in early fall. 4. Why not catch the photographer off guard? Senior Photo Editor, Julie Johnston, Medford, New Jersey, is given a taste of her own medicine. 5. Muskie student volunteers assist with arts and crafts at Christmas on Campus.

1. The name of the game is fun as Juniors Kelley Devol, Williamstown, West Virginia, and Jenny Geyer, Norwich, transport Senior Teri Flanagan, Cambridge, across campus.
2. Mark Hurst, a Senior Biology major from Zanesville, experiments gently with a fine specimen from the Bio Department.
3. 1981 was a special year for WMCO as they celebrated their 20th anniversary. Shown involved in the festivities are Sophomore Deb Freeman, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Junior Kim Stradley, Hartville, and Sophomore Jeff Harper, Carrollton.
4. Senior Ann Joplin, LaGrange, Kentucky, finds bicycling a convenient mode of transportation from her off-campus home with Dr. Elkins to class.

*I am one of many ... equal with my brothers and my sisters ...
Conscious of our common past and future ...
Strengthened by our common dedication.*

1. "The Theta Omicron Rats", alias brothers of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity, perform with high excellence at the Varsity Revue during the 1980 Homecoming Festivities. At center stage, Tom Campbell, a Senior from Rocky River, tells the audience, "I Don't Like Mondays". 2. Winter brings with it a spark of creativity, especially among the men of 109 Lakeside Drive as they display their majestic work of art. 3. Cottage living sometimes involves more than meets the eye as Seniors Craig Beveridge, Bellaire, and Dave Kratoville, Naples, New York, soon found out.

3. ⬆

1. ⬆

1. Senior Mark Ferguson, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, speaks with Muskingum's college minister, Cliff Cain. 2. Coffeehouse entertainment is provided by Sophomores Patti Cline, Glen Ellyn, Illinois, and Gretchen Anaple, Cincinnati, Ohio. 3. The newest creation in collegiate furniture is the "study board" shown here with Seniors Tom Wells, Wyoming, and Becky Stevens, Columbus, as they do their homework in front of the tube. 4. Christmas on Campus, a CenterBroad-sponsored tradition, called for a jolly old elf with a white beard and Junior Mike Swanner came running.

*I feel a quiet comfort as we make our way together
Each on a separate path, yet all in the same direction.*

1. Sophomore Jeff Harper, Carrollton, and Senior Chuck Tuttle, Warrensville Heights, have evidently found something to smile about. 2. The CenterBoard-sponsored Cookie Hours every Monday give Junior John Kuhn, East Fultonham, and Joe Eusebio, a sophomore from Columbiana, something to look forward to after the long weekend. 3. Freshman Kevin Koch, Pataskala, "oompahs" for the Marching Muskies. 4. WMCO Radio covers a Muskie basketball game with play-by-play action from Freshman Todd Rice, Silver Creek, New York, and Sophomore Jeff Harper, Carrollton.

1. ↑

1. Freshman Bob Sprague experiences the very essence of campus life in the College Bookstore. 2. The ladies of 102 Montgomery accompany Freshman Barb Moran, Gibsonia, Pennsylvania in this year's Varsity Revue with their rendition of "Summer Nights". 3. "It's not just for kids anymore." The future elementary teachers pictured here are "learning the ropes" in Bean Bag class. 4. As a real treat from Muskingum's Fine Arts Department, the college hosted its first annual Renaissance dinner in December, complete with a court jester — typical of the era.

*I am an individual . . .
my own distinctive self
with my own identity.
I am like a snowflake
that is different from all others,
with abilities and talents,
emotions and opinions,
ideals and beliefs . . .
all shaped into a pattern
never seen before.*

We have entitled this section of our book "The People". In the most real sense, Muskingum College is made up of people — individuals with a common tie but with uncommon destinies. Our ties with all of these people will be what keeps bringing us back to Muskingum — not the Homecoming game or the Varsity Revue. Thus, we label a most important and memorable facet of our college — "The People".

Mr. Louis O. Palmer

B.A., Lake Forest College
M.A., University of Chicago

Muskingum College
Professor of Art
1956-1981

If there is one, he is the one we'll never forget. He's unique in character, in style, and in person. He taught us to appreciate his discipline. He's a part of "The People" that has represented Muskingum for hundreds of alums as they have returned to campus. Who could forget his dog, Claudio? Who could forget all of his trips to Italy? Mostly, who could forget his tests? No one. Good luck, Mr. Palmer.

CenterBoard . . . “they ran the show”!

1. CenterBoard volunteers in 1980-81 were (kneeling) Sally Stalder, Amy Saviers, Beth Bardonner, (standing) Lee Bowman, Patti Cline, Ralph Davis, Jodi Evick, Julie Higgins, Donna Miller. Not Pictured: President Minie McBride, Luanne Luebben, Shayne Fawcett, Mark Relyea, Karen Rabbideau, Stephanie Spears, Danny Moss, Jeff Allenby, Sharon Johns. 2. Senior Ginny Nash, Warren, seems to be enjoying the Skate-a-thon. 3. The end-of-the-year Horse Races brought much excitement as CB sent two Muskies on an expense-paid trip to the Kentucky Derby. Pictured are freshmen Sherri Wallace, Beth Davies, and Cindy Cooper taking hints from Terry Thomas. 4. Advisors to the Student Programming Board included Dr. Arthur Wills, Marji Bayers, and Terry Thomas. Not pictured is Skip Noftzger.

Honoraries

Muskingum's academic societies promote interest and foster excellence in many disciplines. Local clubs which meet regularly with special programs involve students in the fields of chemistry, education, communications, and geology. In addition, there are chapters at Muskingum of several national honorary fraternities including sociology, biology, mathematics, dramatics, economics, physical education, and scientific research. Although it is impossible to gather each of these honor societies for photographing, we have attempted to picture the majority of Muskingum's honoraries which involve the greatest number of students. Congratulations to all the scholars who are members of Muskingum's honor societies.

OFFICE PERSONNEL

A special segment of "THE PEOPLE" is sometimes overlooked at Muskingum. These people are those behind the scenes — our office personnel. Certainly, the secretaries, the nurses, the librarians, and the phone operators are involved in our student life — either directly or indirectly. Some have grown to be our close friends. In an effort to bring Muskingum to the place where we are today, our faculty and administrators have had to look to these individuals on many occasions. Thanks to those "behind the scenes" for helping us to reach the crossroads.

Joyce Brescia, Student Life, probably knows more Muskies than anybody, or at least she's heard more of their complaints.

OFFICERS OF THE COLLEGE

"... You may wonder what there is about our college that seems to set it apart. I'd like to explain why we who are already a part of Muskingum consider this a very special campus.

A few words will help me acquaint you with Muskingum College. Much of Muskingum's character and image stems from its size, which has encouraged the development of a strong sense of community and caring among all those students, staff, faculty and administrators who collectively make up what we call Muskingum College. You will find Muskingum small enough to offer you the opportunity to participate both in academic programs and co-curricular activities. Your accomplishments are noticed and applauded here. If you need assistance, caring persons are available. But at the same time, Muskingum College is large enough to offer you programs and prospects which will challenge you and stimulate your growth and development.

Muskingum places a high value on the excellence of its liberal arts tradition. That tradition has enabled us through the years to provide the solid educational background which permits people to move in a myriad of professional directions. We're also conscious of the increasing interest among young people in specific career training. We have responded to that interest by providing more assistance, within the liberal arts framework, in career preparation. Muskingum is committed to using its facilities in those ways that will most help you during your years in college to prepare for your years after college.

All of this is offered to you in a beautiful, natural environment. Muskingum College is located on rolling terrain dotted with graceful trees. There are sections of the campus to fit your every mood and type of activity — places for action as well as places for contemplation.

I'm sure you will find Muskingum College an attractive, exciting, stimulating community in which to live and grow."

Homecoming Weekend 1980

The weekend of October 3-5 brought hundreds of loyal alumni back to campus as Muskingum College celebrated its annual Homecoming weekend. The excitement had been building since the beginning of the school year as the Homecoming committee prepared for all of the events of the weekend. The voting for the queen, practices for Varsity Revue, and the bonfire in the hollow led to the climax of the season — Homecoming weekend itself. Registration, the Varsity Revue and coronation of the queen, the receptions, the Saturday parade, the big game, "The New Deal Rhythm Band" in concert, and the church services carried the weekend through as once again, Muskie alums reminisced of their alma mater. Of course it was also a good time for everybody and the Homecoming theme, "Swing Into the Future With a Push From the Past", was exemplified in every event throughout the weekend.

1. ⬆

1. 1980 Homecoming Queen Colleen Hawkins gives her "pep talk" before the big game against Wittenberg. 2. Julie Pissocra, Lorrie Schmidt, and Lori Jones "Swing into Social Life" as they ride the Delta float in the Homecoming parade. 3. Concerned onlookers root for the Muskies at the Homecoming game against Witt. Unfortunately, their concern was in vain as the Muskies were defeated in a close 17-12 bout.

3. ⬆

1. Mr. Robert Taylor, Class of 1928, speaks at the Old Timers' Breakfast on Saturday morning. 2. Jackie Penny, Jodi Evick, and Laura Dummermuth wait to "swing" with the New Deal Rhythm Band.

1. The original Muskingum College nose-flute ensemble made up of five of our most conscientious and dedicated administrators (Mr. Duane Scott Dittman, Mr. David Terry Thomas, Ms. Patricia LeDonne, Mr. Richard Noftzger, and Dr. David R. Skeen) perform at the 1980 Varsity Revue. 2. President Arthur DeJong and his wife, Joyce, catch a ride to the festivities. 3. Perhaps the most respected group of campus leaders, our Resident Assistants, display their talents with their version of "Dum-Dum-Dah-Dah" at the Varsity Revue. 4. Queen Colleen Hawkins and her father swing with the New Deal Rhythm Band. 5. The rain on Homecoming Day didn't dampen the spirits of the football fans eager to support their fighting Muskies.

1. Muskingum's 1979 Homecoming Queen, Miss Sue Harnick, Allison Park, Pennsylvania, and her father take part in the Homecoming Day festivities on the football field before the big game. 2. First place among the float entries went to the F.A.D. Social Club with their work of art entitled "Swing Into Athletics". Depicted is a Muskie golfer swinging into a course of varsity sports offered at Muskingum. 3. Centerboard of Muskingum College brought "The New Deal Rhythm Band" all the way from Washington state to perform as a most enjoyable part of the "swing-ing" weekend. 4. Hundreds of Muskie Alumni registered for the week-end's events. Flower co-chairman Jan Evick distributes mums at registration.

Pledge Day

The date was February 14, 1981, and the place was Patton Hill. There, hundreds of Muskies congregated to laugh, to hug, to yell, to push, to fall down, to climb back up again — all in all to show their club spirit. On that day, 104 men and 93 women joined the ranks of the greeks on campus (if they can be called greeks) and made a host of new, close friends. The Interclubs sponsored lunch in the lower gym as the faculty served and a Columbus D.J. played the music. A song that the D.J. played several times and one that seemed to depict the occasion comes to mind as we think back on that day — CELEBRATION!

Parents' Weekend

It was a new idea — to combine Parents' Weekend with Mothers' Weekend for one huge spring celebration. It took a lot of planning and the committee put so much hard work into making it a success. And a success it really was! As the weather fully cooperated, the international bazaar on the quad, along with the Saturday evening talent show and the crowning of the Spring Queen, Miss Cathy Harper, truly brought out the theme for the weekend — "A World of Love for Our Parents." Congratulations to Miss Harper, Sally Stalder and Kevin Spears (co-chairmen), and the rest of the Parents' Weekend Committee on the first successful spring Parents' Weekend of many more surely to come.

Commencement

May 10, 1981

1. With the threat of rain earlier that morning, the administration was forced to hold graduation for the Class of '81 inside John Glenn Gym. 2. Junior Marshals Jane Cooper and Dave Morilak wait to lead the graduates in for the baccalaureate ceremony. 3. Mr. Sol Linowitz delivers the commencement address. 4. Mr. Louis Palmer was given special recognition at the graduation ceremony with regard to his many years of educating Muskingum students in the discipline of the arts.

We have labeled the past section of our book "The Year". Second only to the human beings in this world are the moments those people share. We realize moments go on and on forever, yet we have attempted to capture a single segment — one year at Muskingum College. Surely, a lot of things passed by in that short segment . . . so here's hoping we were able to depict a few of the memorable moments so that they can never be forgotten.

I am a believer . . .
accepting much on faith . . .
taking much for granted.
I remember the past
and trust my past experience
as an animal
trusts its instincts.
For there is a calm security
and a thankfulness
in knowing that some things
have always been,
that some things
will always be.

Epilogue

Capturing the year as it really was, with pictures and words, was the main goal of our staff. We tried to bring back the mood of every event, activity, and issue of the 1980-81 academic year, filling the book with accurate facts, fun times, and good memories. Every time you pick up the 1981 Muscoljuan, look at it, read it, enjoy it. It was done for you.

Many, many long and late nights were spent creating the 1981 Muscoljuan. So many people helped bring it together, it's hard to give everyone the thanks they deserve.

Because the Muscoljuan is largely a picture book, a big thanks goes to Julie Johnston, Photo Editor. In addition, thanks to Joe, Amy, Dave, Greg, Maz, and Susan — especially for last minute pictures.

Another person, someone who proved to be vitally important, a very dependable assistant and also a friend, deserves a huge thanks — Brenda Ferguson, 1981 business manager.

All the help from Laura, Lori, and Julie was really appreciated, and Laura, best of luck next year.

Thanks to Kathy Smith for all the sports stats and to P.R., who probably hopes they never hear from me again.

Finally, thanks to John Urian, Herff-Jones representative, for all of his help and support.

On Graduation Day, I vowed that the '81 Yearbook would be completed "soon", no matter what measures were necessary. Today, in the first week of the month of August, I find myself struggling to fulfill my promise. I discovered that a yearbook is a huge undertaking, and most of my summer, it has given my family, my friends, travel, nights out, and even my job the back seat.

I approach the finishing of the last page with mixed emotions — on one hand, a sigh of relief that it is finally finished, yet it's hard to believe I'm about to send the final shipment to Gettysburg. Too, a feeling of curiosity about your reaction to the finished product keeps me lying in wait for the day it will arrive in the mail (by the way, hopefully that day will be in September, at least.) and the day I get the first phone call to say a name is spelled wrong or a picture is blurry. I suppose what I'm trying to say is: "Here it is, I hope you like it."

1981 Muscoljuan Editor
Julie Higgins

The 1981 Muscoljuan was printed in a limited edition of 1000 copies by Herff Jones Yearbooks, a Division of Carnation Company, Gettysburg, Pa. It is printed on 100 pound Bordeaux stock with black ink. Excepting special sections, all type is Helvetica, both standard and italic. The cover is custom embossed in antique plum base with silver applied and crush grain. Trim size is 8 ½ x 11 inches and the book contains 192 pages.

*Keep a song of joy inside your hearts,
Even though the time has come for us to part;
We'll be together soon and time will fly,
'Cause we never really say Good-bye.
Toni Tennille*

1. ⬆

1. Mark Hurst, Zanesville, speaks as valedictorians of the graduating class on the value of academics. 2. As Graduation often means leaving close friends, Tom Bedway, Cadiz, poses with Jodi and Jan Evick, St. Clairsville, before he leaves the Muskie campus. 3. Thrilled by the thought that it's finally over, Lori Radecki, Steven Hills, Ohio, leaves the stage, diploma in hand. 4. "And after the ball was over . . ."
