Some things never change, including the need for good friends, good fun and relaxation. Muskingum's Quad offers a place to do everything for rapping, to resting, to rollerskating. In a time of rapid change it is good to know that some traditions remain. You can always count on a "Muskie Hi" on the Muskie Quad and, as long as there are bricks and sidewalk, there will be plenty of chalk to fill them.

Each student leaves Muskingum College as the owner of an abundance of memories. Whether it be Muskie weekends filled with Dorm Parties, Happy Hours and Open Houses; a certain Pledge day or a referee that made a game just a bit more entertaining — these memories are ours forever. Nothing can change the things that made us smile.

Time is always moving forward. Someday, when Muskingum is just a memory, and the Muskies of the future inhabit the Quad, we will be able only to look back (Chris seems to be looking way back!) Come with us now as we travel through the past year at Muskingum College and ENJOY! — as we hold time still during these changing times.

Senior. — that magic word that causes the ordinary underclassman into be metamorphosized into a knowledgeable, responsible(?), superior being on their way out of this world we call Muskingum College. Gone are the days of the naive freshman, the laxidazy sophomore and the hardworking junior. Yes, it's your fourth year, your last year — it's your year!

This "arrival", however, is laced with numerous side effects. Towards the end of the first semester, with job interviews in progress and many more ahead, there is a sudden urge to learn more about the "outside world" (beyond the boundries of New Concord, OH) Senior Muskie mailboxes are suddenly brimming with copies of The Wall Street Journal, Fortune, Money and Time. Seniors are often found puttering around the reference section of the library, doing things they've never done before! Simultaneously, resume' building begins in earnest.

Among the other drastic side effects, perhaps the most radically felt is "senioritis". This can strike at any time during the year but is usually the most actue just before Spring Break. This virus is accompanied by a sudden drop in work incentive, lethargy, loosening of morals and lack of academic priority. Social activities, legal and illegal, increase while the Student Life office "hews and haas" over unethical conduct. This brings the guilty party's universal response of "who cares?"

So — Seniors, this is your year. The year you set your sights on the future and prepare to join the world of responsibility. The year you can do just about whatever you want — "you're a senior"! This is the year you go through Muskingum — for the last time.

Events

In the Fall, as the Muskie Quad and campus once again comes alive with the student and faculty population, the year is opened with an array of 1st semester's events. The initial signs of entertainment this year included night life activities such as, Make-me Laugh, and the Men's and Women's Inter Club Toga Party, held at the STAG House (After all, what's a year at college without 200 intoxicated students socializing in sheets and bangles to the tune of "Louie, Louie.") Steering the campus back to a bit of culture, students had the opportunity to attend the two 1st semester plays, "My Three Angels" held in Layton Theatre and "Our Town", held in the Little Theatre. As usual, Skating On The Quad put some zing into the afternoon rays at the end of Ohio's Indian Summer. A weekly Monday Tradition, Cookie Hour, at the Top of the Center continued to give students and faculty the opportunity to plunge into the work week with a full stomach and a bit of socialization. Fall Rush gave upperclassmen the chance to look into participation in a social club culminating in Pledge Day including "rushing the hill" and an all day progressive party, starting with the Stags and finishing up, that evening, with the Mace.

Fall is a time of transition and Fall at Muskingum, after a summer away, no exception. This year, we eased into another round of classes, test and finals, with a spectacular fall and a forward movement into the next of the year.

Two on a Homecoming Float

Homecoming 1984 — Despite the changes on our campus and in our world, Muskingum retains traditions that carry on the vitality that makes it so very special. Homecoming is no exception. Homecoming 1984 was once again, a merging of the old and the new, students and Alumni coming together to share in the Muskie game, Muskie Quad, and Muskie friends. Alumni registration on the Quad followed by the dependable Homecoming parade kicked off the better-than-average day. Unchanging also was the highlight of the day culminating in an evening of entertainment at the Varsity Revue in Brown Chapel. Homecoming means “coming home” and that is what generations of Muskies have been doing for years. It is very good to realize that some things never change.

IN MEMORY OF DOROTHY DEE VELLENGA

Dee Dee Vellenga, Scholar in Residence, Muskingum College faculty member since 1972, died at her brother's home in Raleigh, North Carolina, October 3, 1984.

Dee Dee was part of a long tradition of association of the Vellenga family with Muskingum College.

Her father Simon Vellenga, taught chemistry here from 1956-1970; her mother, Alice, was a graduate.

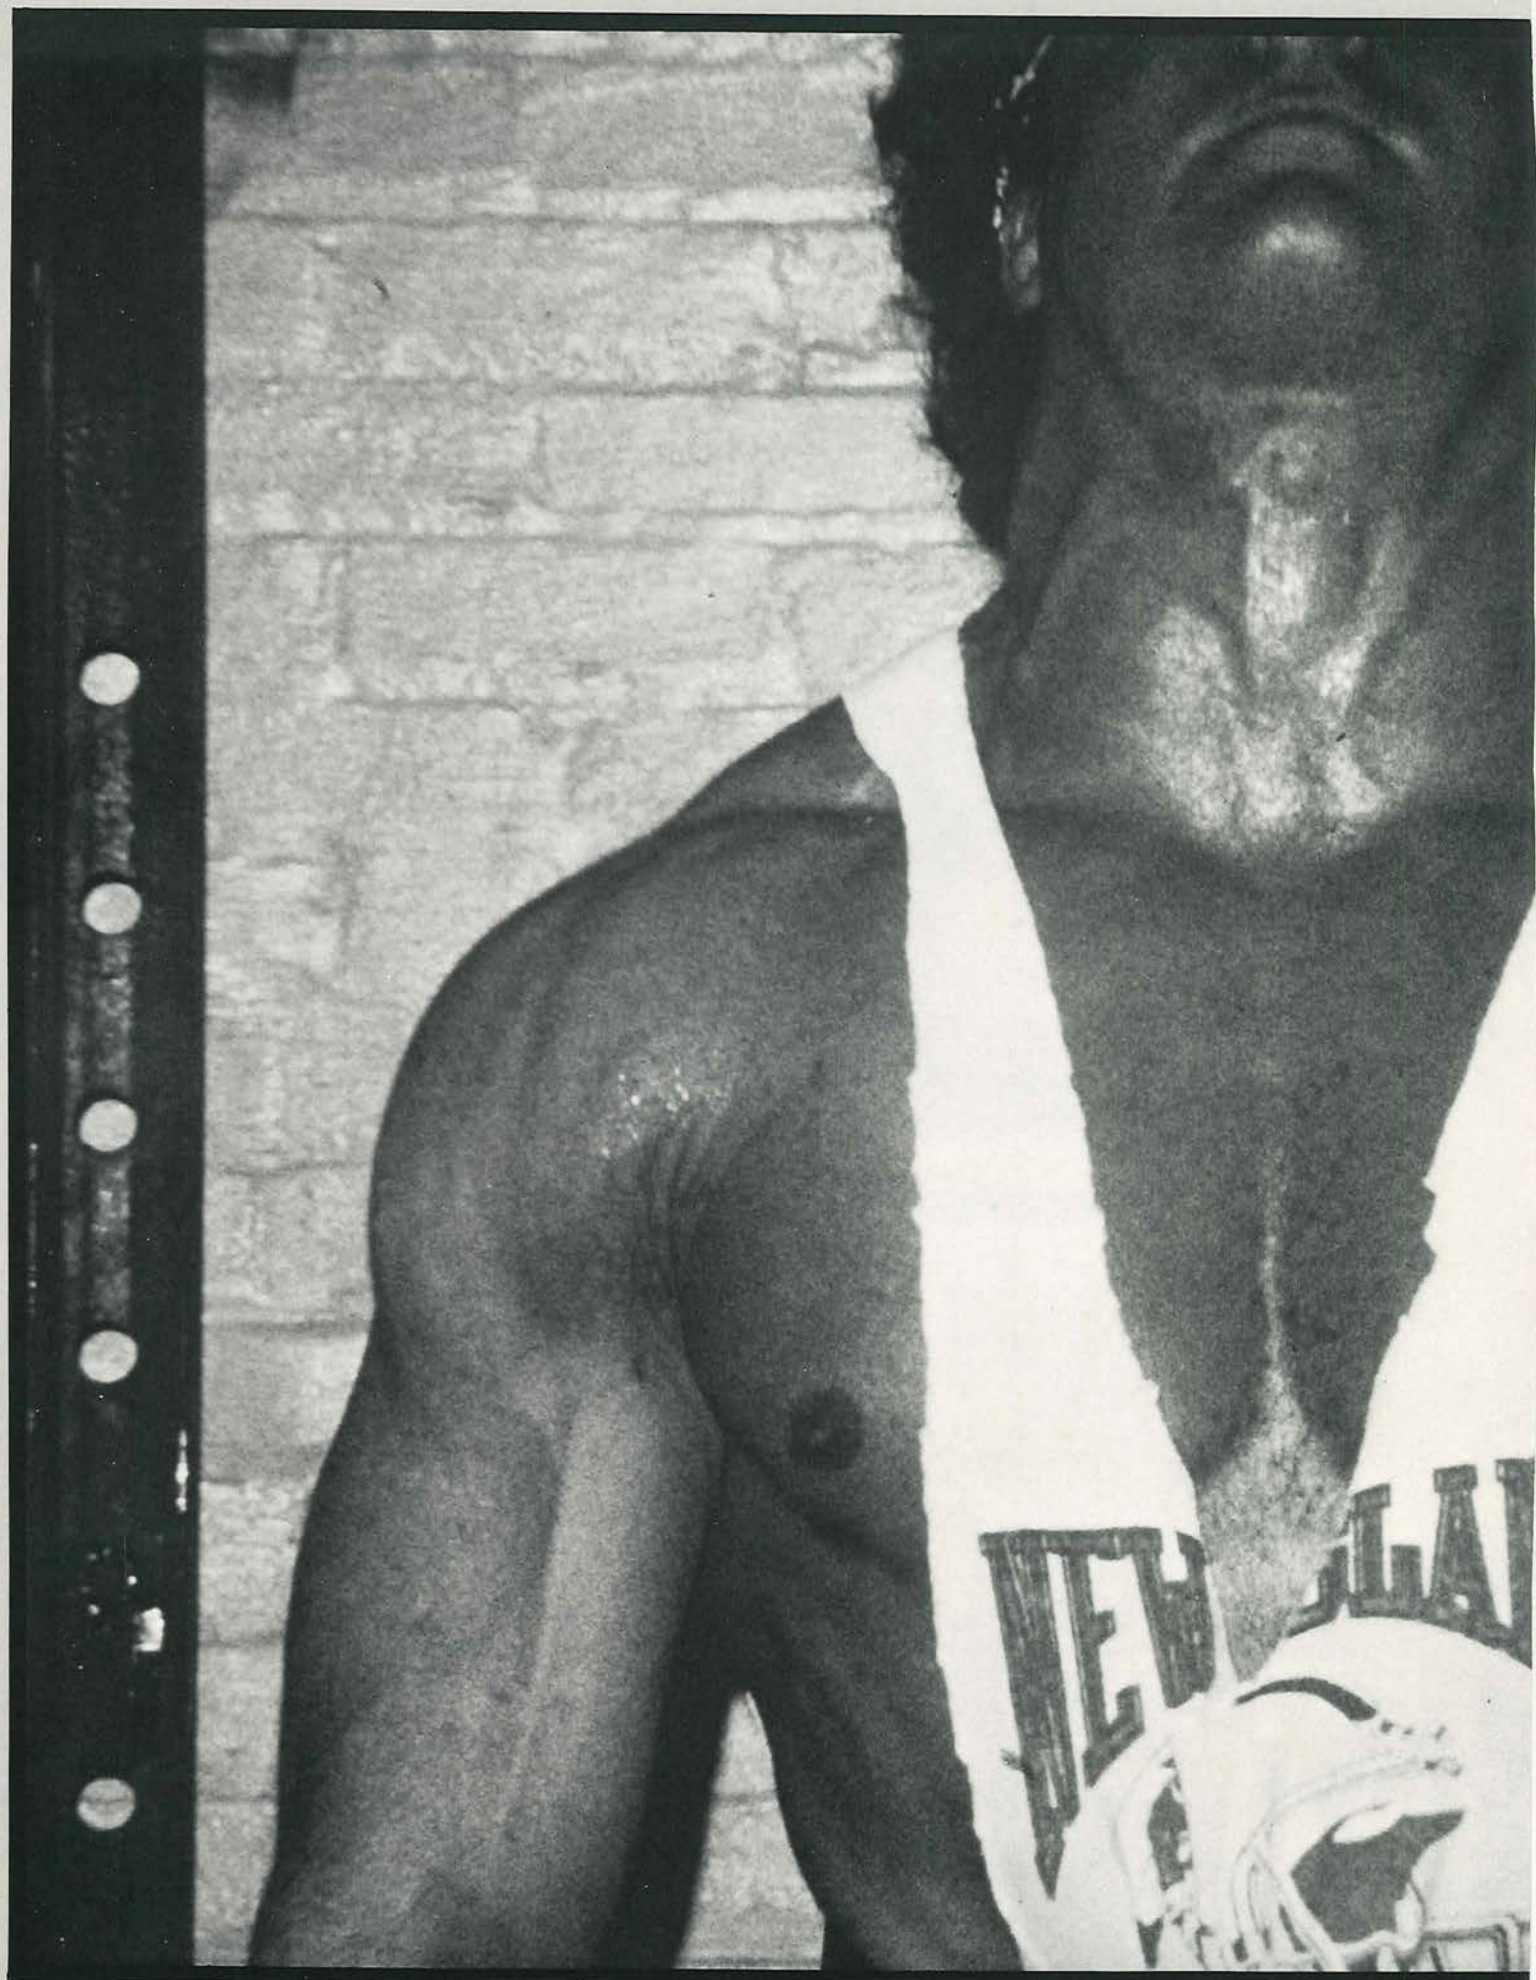

Dr. Vellenga graduated from Monmouth College in 1959. She was a charter member of the Peace Corps, teaching sciences in Accra, Ghana, in 1961-63. This experience attracted her to African cultures, which became her academic specialty. She earned her Ph.D. in Sociology from Columbia University in 1975.

Dee Dee held numerous fellowships: a Ford Foundation Grant, an NDFL Fellowship in Hausa Language, an American Association of University Women scholarship for work in Africa, a Social Science Research Council post-doctoral grant for field work in Africa. Her work in Africa, coupled with archival research in London, Switzerland and America, made her a first-class scholar. She published many articles. A major book, Women, Inequality and Conflict in Southern Ghana, is in the hands of Columbia University Press.

Dee Dee's life was filled with commitment to her family, friends, students, and causes in which she believed. She was a supporter of Black Studies, a friend to International students, and a quiet eloquent advocate for women's issues, particularly the ERA.

Dee Dee's courage, her unflinching optimism and cheerfulness under enormous stress and great pain, her openness about her disease, her love of life, and of people, have made a difference in the lives of her friends. We join her family in grief, but we glory in the memory of this special person, Dee Dee Vellenga.

Sports

This year's athletic teams followed in the footsteps of last year's much improved teams. The varsity football team bettered last year's record of 6-3 by finishing the season with a 9-1 record. Head coach, Jeff Heacock, along with his staff, guided the team led by senior captains Tim Swanger and Jim Purdy to victory. There are several key players returning in 1985. They include: Jeff Allison linebacker, Ricardo Bunks tail back, John Demers defensive tackle, Darrell Hazel wide receiver, and Greg Ours offensive tackle. With a good incoming class and upper class, Muskingum should be one of the top teams in the OAC next year. Those who participate in the many other fall sports like volleyball, field hockey, soccer, and cross country, find them as equally rewarding. Men and women join together, sweat together, win together, and lose together. The letter jackets earned can never match the fond memories participation in a Muskie sport can provide.

Faculty + Staff

One thing that helps to make Muskingum the academic institution that it is, is its faculty. Muskingum's faculty, however, is more than a way to get an academic education. Our campus is alive with authors, lecturers and superb educators rolled into one. We have a number of consistent professors in all departments, but the Psychology, Communications, Geology and Education departments have renered some new faces.

An important aspect of our faculty at Muskingum is the degree to which they are a part of our college community. Faculty participates in organizations about campus, as well as social functions. (Some even wear togas!)

After four (or so) years at Muskingum, important relationships form. As time goes on, it becomes increasingly evident that some of those relationships include the professor we see nearly everyday (the professors we should see nearly every day!?) So as things change and time goes on, we realize that our faculty at Muskingum is as important to livelihood as its students.

Muskingum; a four year, co-educational liberal arts school, located in New Concord, Oh. We know Muskingum has its seniors - — but what about the rest of its students?

So — you're a freshman? You've come to Muskingum in August — relatively thin, unable to take effective notes and ready to change the world either through brains, brawn, or booze. Funny how you leave 10 to 15 pounds heavier, able to decipher a Russian novel into note form and willing to accept that college life sometimes isn't all the movie said it would be.

And then, you decide to come back for another year. You're a sophomore and have finally shed the freshman fat, gained a full year of college knowledge and return fully prepared to give the incoming freshmen the same grief you received at the onset of your college career. But what about that sophomore slump? You begin to realize that sometimes the most exciting thing to do at school is visit Shegog's, eat a bag of Nacho Cheese Doritos, a box of Ho-Hos and a half-gallon of cold white milk.

You've decided to come back for your third year! Now a Junior, you have just one more year! By this time, everything in the Cafeteria tastes the same — beige. You have had just about as much dorm living as any one individual is able to stomach and class attendance is as minimal as you've learned possible.

Muskingum is a four year college and though Seniors supposedly "rule the school", the undergradmen are the mass that make Muskingum a special place.

Clubs

Muskingum College offers a wide variety of opportunities for students to get involved on campus. This year's clubs were very active on campus. Lambda Sigma, the Sophomore Honorary, sponsored Little Sib's weekend, care package distribution, and a pie in the eye contest. Phi Sigma Iota, the Modern Language Honorary, sponsored foreign films regularly. Muskie Players saw through the production of four wonderful plays. Centerboard sponsored two major concerts and many off-campus trips. This list could go on forever. The Social Clubs on campus continued to be a vital force. Many freshman choose to join one in February. Together, each club strives to create memorable brotherhood and sisterhood with lifelong bonds. Caring students work hard to create a pleasant atmosphere on campus. Honoraries serve to promote scholarship in specific areas of study. Whether the club is an honorary, a service organization, or a social club, it quite often serves as a creative outlet from the tensions of studies. People with common interests share, grow, and even party together. All this helps create the lifelong memories of the college experience here at Muskingum College.

The men's Muskie Basketball team, coached by Jim Burson and led by senior captains, Mark Dempsey, Steve Dulkoski, and Tim Crowe, finished the season with an 18-8 record and third place in the OAC. With the return of freshman Brett Steele, sophomores Kevin Jarrett, and Tim Miller, and juniors John Krause and Todd Polen, the outlook for next season is good. The lady Muskies basketball team, coached by Donna Newberry who was named coach of the year, finished the 1984-85 season with a 20-4 record in the regular season and an overall record of 25-4. The Lady Muskies received a host of awards. They were Conference and Atlantic Regional Champions. Tri-captains, Tracy Weaver, Diane Lancashire, and Sheri Conrad, made first team all-conference. Other key players for the lady Muskies included Monette Dulkoski, Tricia Rawn, Susan Alley, and Lynette Zablodny. The remainder of the athletic teams are on the move. The wrestling team finished the season with a 2-15 record and placed sixth in the Ohio Athletic Conference. We should all be proud of the Muskie sports teams and their efforts to represent Muskingum College.

Events

SPRING! Ah, the time of sunshine, blueskies, and flowering landscapes (well, maybe not always in Ohio!) Though it was long in coming this year, the clearing of grey skies and raindrops brought sunbathers out to the "Muskie beaches" in mass.

Spring probably more so than any other season at Muskingum is a time when there is no time. Spring events start after Christmas Break and don't stop until graduation. This year was more than active with Spring Rush in February starting off second semester with a series of parties, allowing Freshmen and women and men a better look at club life and club members. Pledge day, covered in a blanket of snow, dampening our clothes, did nothing but heighten enthusiasm on the hill.

The two Spring play, "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Hans Christian Anderson", gave both students and faculty a chance to participate in and see both comedic and musical children's theatre.

Parents Weekend also made up the Spring Events Agenda. Besides a fair on the Quad comprised of campus clubs and organizations, the weekend's big event was the Parent's Weekend Talent Show. The show, displaying an incredible amount of local Muskie talent, also included the crowning of the Spring Queen, Carol Pitts.

The Spring Concert, Joan Jett and the Black Hearts provided a change of pace as the John Glenn Gymnasium transformed into a concert hall full of sights, sounds, and people.

Ah, Spring semester crammed with events and reasons to stay on the Muskie Campus.

Muskingum College presented Hans Christian Anderson in the Brown Chapel April 22-27, 1985. The children's story is based on the true story of a Danish Cobbler who was awarded a royal pension from the king for his undisputed talents in story telling. Hans is a young talented cobbler who journeys to the town of Copenhagen where he sees Doro, the prima ballerina of a Copenhagen ballet. He is completely taken back by her stunning beauty and immediately falls in love with the dancer. He eventually comes to be employed to fix her dance slippers. After witnessing a bitter argument between Doro and her husband, Neils, he mistakenly believes that she is unhappily married. He writes a story about the situation to show Doro that he wants to help her leave her husband. Touched by the tender story, Doro is inspired. The ballet company turns the tale into a ballet which Hans narrates. Hans eventually realizes that she is happy in her marriage. At the end of the play Hans tells the story of the King's clothes. The King awards Hans a medal and Doro places it around his neck.

Time continues to march into the future. Each one of us carries forward Memories of experiences from Muskingum College. The smiles, the tears, and the laughter help create who we are and who we will become. Still time moves onward ever changing and with ever new possibilities.

The sun will continue to rise and set each day as it symbolizes the passage of time. We learn, we grow, and we mature in an unending process. Remember you can never step into the same river twice. As time changes, remember the past but do not cling to it. Look to the ever rising sun from the east.

What does the future hold? There are dreams to be filled, and still more dreams to be dreamt. The future is radically open and ever calls us to new possibilities. Yes, time changes. May the Lord bless you, and keep you; the Lord make His face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

COLOPHON

The 1985 edition of Muskingum Colleges MUSOLJUAN was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing Division in Clarksville, Tennessee.

The cover was designed by the MUSCOLJUAN staff and was maroon in color with the school insignia and a picture applied. Endsheets were Stainless Steel and the paper stock was 80# glossy.

The 8½ x 11 trim size contained 200 pages with 1,000 copies being printed.

Century Schoolbook type face was used with Century Schoolbook Bold, style #16 being used as the emphasis face. Picture captions were 8 point, body copy 10 point, and main headlines 36 point all caps.

Senior portraits and all formal school pictures were taken by Sudlow Photography.

THANK YOU

Producing a yearbook is a difficult task. Co-ordinating the finances, planning the pictures, layouts, copy, and meeting the deadlines all mean plenty of work and co-operation.

The MUSCOLJUAN staff would like to thank our advisor Ron Mazerowski.

Our Company advisor Robin Fritz.

A special thank-you to co-editor Melissa Charleroy and her layout staff for the long hours on Saturday mornings to put the book together.

To our photographers who went

To fellow staff members who spent many hours planning and designing the pages of the book.

To Public Relations for their assistance in developing and printing pictures.

To Cambridge Camera Shop for its speedy service.

To The Black and Magenta for donating some sports pictures.

Finally, we would like to thank you for your support throughout the year.
